Seniors can benefit from Costco's membership by accessing a range of travel options that often come at a fraction of the cost found elsewhere. As a Costco member, you're eligible for discounted rates on vacations, cruises, hotels, car rentals, and more. To access these deals, seniors must have a Costco membership.

Costco Membership Requirements for Seniors

While Costco doesn't offer a separate membership category exclusively for seniors, those aged 60 and older are eligible for the standard Costco membership. The membership includes various benefits such as access to Costco Travel, where you can book everything from flights to hotel stays.

The membership fee for Costco is $60 per year for a basic membership and $120 per year for an Executive Membership. The Executive Membership provides additional perks, such as an annual 2% reward on most Costco purchases and more benefits in Costco Travel.

If you're a senior and want to enjoy the best possible travel deals, the Executive Membership is often the most cost-effective option in the long run.
